STATUS REPORT REGARDING MOTION TO DISMISS

Now comes the defendant, Oscar Dillon III, and respectfully submits the following status report regarding his, and codefendant Michael Grady's, motion to dismiss indictment:

1. On April 24, 2019, the government filed a motion to produce defendants' hearing exhibits and for an extension of time to respond to the defendants' motion to dismiss. The motion was granted on April 29, 2019, directing defendants to produce all hearing exhibits prior to May 3, 2019, and allowing the government one-week extension to file their response, following the turning of the hearing exhibits.

2. All of the hearing exhibits were turned over and identified for the government prior to May 3, 2019. Subsequently, the government filed their response on May 8, 2019 to the defendants' motion to dismiss. On May 10, 2019 this Honorable Court accepted the governments overlength response.

3. The defense does not intend on filing any addition replies and rests on all of their written submission and in-court arguments.

4. As of now, this matter is fully briefed for the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Vadim A. Glozman
